I have enjoyed the time I spend with Aunt Sybil, reminiscing of my younger years and times she was always there for me. Even from a young age of 4.5, I would try to copy things she did. Ex: She would sweep the porch, I would too. On one occasions while sweeping I decided to lean over the side of porch, you guessed it, I failed off and fractured my arm. She had to run to where my dad was working and to bring him home to take me to the hospital. Then about a year later my siblings, cousins, Freddie Wayne, Barbara Ann, Durrell and I were playing in the back of and old pickup truck. We was told to get out, everyone was getting out by themself and I said I could too. Oh no, not me! I fell again and I fractied the same arm! Again Sybil had to run to where my dad and grandpa was working to get them. She always told me I was the cause of having trouble with her lungs. 😭💕 She always showed me how much she loved me and she try to protect me over anything she could. As someone told me, not to long ago, Aunt Sybil thought I did no wrong. That was my aunt, she loved you unconditionally, not to say she would not tell you what she thought - she would and did, but she loved you regardless. I will miss her, but I know she was ready to go home.

Donnie, Aunt Sybil loved you so much and wanted the best for you and to be happy. I know she is super proud of the way you are handling all the arrangements and etc. I am too. ❤️🙏.
