“ We love you dearly, Miss Lois, and will miss you so much. But you are in Heaven now and happily rejoicing with your Father God and Jesus, your Savior. Our families were like real kin to each other for 63 years living as neighbors; and we were blessed to know you and be your friend.

“ I enjoyed knowing Lois when she worked at the library in Green Pond. She was such a faithful worker and so pleasant to know. She and Bill Hubbard always made you feel so welcome at the library. She was a lovely person, a life well lived.
