“ Oh sweet Mrs. Baggett. I remember my first day of school on her school bus number 65. She didn't tolerate anything. I later got to see her again while she was at Plantation Manor Apartments where my mom worked at the time. We also got to visit with her at the Self Nursing home facility. She is/was the classiest lady I've had the pleasure of meeting in my life. My mom still has some of her clothes. Dearly loved and especially missed! \r\n\r\nI wanted to speak out to the family. You're in my prayers. May God give you peace throughout your grieving process. I'm so sorry I just found this obituary. \r\n\r\nI'll find the last photo we have of her and post soon. \r\n\r\nWith much love,\r\nKay Farish and Hazel Humphries
