“ Mama Sue and Daddy Doug had me in their home back in 1999 when I was 3/4 yrs old. Mama Sue was a sweet woman, always smelled like church. Back then it was me, my brothers, a boy named Kenneth and a girl named Monica. I still got a picture of me and my brothers eating on the back porch at a small table. Lots of memories from there. ”

“ Mama Sue and her family showed me the world of foster care. She has helped countless amounts of kids over the years, who are all in a better place because of her kindness and her open doors. She will be missed. ”
