“ My deepest sympathies to Lamar and the entire family! I remember many years ago Lamar and Wanda being in a Sunday School class that I taught at Westwood Baptist. She was always such a sweet and loving person. I was having surgery at Shelby back in May and who walks in my room? WANDA! She said “Rodney, Debra may I pray with you”. We hadn't seen her in years as we had moved out of state and recently relocated back to Alabaster. We enjoyed visiting with her as she had such a sweet demeanor and true love for Jesus and people! Go Rest High On That Mountain my sweet friend!

“ Dear Lamar: I am deeply saddened over the passing of dear Wanda. She was one of the sweetest, smartest and most sincere people I have ever met. All of us on earth lost a great one and my heart aches. I still have the box painting that Wanda gave me last summer when you two visited us. The single word on the painting is "Joy", which is exactly what Wanda brought to everyone she knew. Be strong my friend. \n\nDeepest condolences, George

“ Dear Lamar;\n\n\nPlease accept my condolences on the loss of your wife, Wanda, last week. Although I did not know her well, I enjoyed talking with her several years (2011) ago when I was passing through NC/Georgia to deliver supplies to you for the local histotech training program. You both were so gracious to my husband and me that evening. I am so sorry that she is no longer with you and your family. She will be missed but always remembered.

“ I cannot put into words what Wanda's friendship meant to me. We met many years ago while working together in the Pathology Department at Oxford Lafayette County Hospital. Wanda always had a smile on her face and words of encouragement, a Christian lady. No matter where the miles took her, we stayed in touch. Lamar, she always told me how much she loved you and how good you were to her. Heaven has truly gained an angel. Today she is singing with the saints. She will be missed by many. Lamar, Kerry, Kyle and the family my heart is breaking for you. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May God wrap His loving arms around each one of you providing strength, peace and comfort during this difficult time. God bless.
