“ Wayne was always complimentary and a gentleman of a DJ there in Birmingham. Very supportive of all gospel groups and his friendliness just grew on ya. I will miss his friendship down through the years, but looking forward to that blessed hope. If there is a \"heavenly microphone\" there, he will be right in front of it! May God bless and comfort his family at this time. Our prayers are with you.\r\n\r\nErnie Phillips and family

“ Wayne, was a great friend through the years. We promoted Southern Gospel Music for over 20 years and Wayne was a big part of what we did by getting the word out about our singings. He will be greatly missed but he is in the greatest service, we have the hope of seeing him one day for a great reunion.

“ I grew up listening to Wayne and thought he had the coolest job ever! I would dream of being on the radio. Today I am, and a lot of what I do is what I remembered him doing. God bless his family. He may be gone, but he left his mark on a lot of people...I am one.

“ I fondly remember Wayne from years ago when I pastored in the Birmingham area. Although a great radio station, WDJC would not have been the same without Wayne Wallace and what he brought to the station. I am confident that as with myself, he had a huge following and was loved by many. I am sure that he will be greatly missed by family, church and friends! May God's richest blessings be with everyone connected with his life.

“ Prayers for the family. I had the opportunity to work with Wayne at WDJC back in the mid 70s and again in the early 80s. I enjoyed his sense of humor and unique laugh. Wayne was a very good man who touched countless many during his 45 years on-air.
