“ Hi Wood family. Bill belonged to the Men II Sunday Class at Valley Creek Baptist Church. We have a unique group of men who are very close and much like brothers, caring for one another. I offer this to let you know how much Bill is loved and how much he has meant to each of us. We are deeply saddened by his untimely death and our hearts are very heavy. To say we will miss Bill does not even begin to express our loss of our dear friend and brother in Christ. To the family, our prayers and our care for you continues. We love you Wood family. And we love our Bill. On behalf of our 18 men, Mike Nabors, Teacher and friend.

“ Bill is already missed at our daily meeting at McDonald's. We have been gathering and fellowshiping for a lot of years. Too, Connie and I will miss spending time with Marian and Bill in the great Smoky Mountains. We had some good times sightseeing and dining together along with the Crumptions and Odoms. Bill we miss you!

“ My heart hurts for Ms. Marian. She and Bill were always together and such an encouragement to many. Their love for one another and Christ was so evident. I had no idea Bill had been sick. I changed churches and had not seen him or Ms. Marin in a while. Sorry for your loss and praying for your families.
