“ May God be with your family in your time of mourning. Only He can give you what you need during this difficult time and He is always ready to listen to your prayers because at Psalm 65:2 God is called the “Hearer of prayer.” The help that God provides does make a difference. While it does not eliminate the pain, it makes it easier to bear. I am sorry for your loss.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. It is so hard to say goodbye to a loved one who has been with you for a long time. In the near future, all sadness will be replaced with joy when God wipes out all tears from our eyes, “and death will be no more” (Revelation 21:4) and then no matter how many generations there are, we will all be together. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Sorry for your loss. Good memories of cleaning your dads tool shed and going to bull dog bend swimming. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers.
