“ Jesus knew the pain of losing someone in death. (Jn 14:9) Jesus “groaned in the spirit and became troubled.” when Lazarus died. Then, “Jesus gave way to tears.” (Jn 11:33, 35) He felt the pain and sorrow that death brings. However, Jesus taught that someday “all those in the memorial tombs” will be resurrected. (Jn 5:28) Should it be hard to believe that God can re-create life? Countless trillions of stars fill the universe, yet God gives the name of each one! (Isaiah 40:26) So God can remember our dead loved ones in every detail, and He will restore them to life. Furthermore, the Bible teaches that He is eager to raise the dead. Faithful Job asked: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?” Job was speaking about waiting in the grave until the time came for God to remember him. He said to God: “You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”—Job 14:13-15. The Bible tells us: “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.” (James 4:8) A principal way to draw close to God is through prayer. Do not underestimate its value! The Bible makes this comforting promise: “The Lord is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” (Ps 34:18) It also assures us: “Throw your burden upon the Lord himself, and He himself will sustain you.”(Ps 55:22)

“ Please share the following condolences with the family of Winnie Lake: James, I am sorry to here about your mom's passing. Even when we know the time is short, it is difficult to imagine they are no longer there physically. My thoughts are with you and I am sure your mom will always be. Thank you, Gaye Anne Peters 11/26/2012 08:54:18 AM
