

Winnifred "Wimp" Rose Horn

April 10, 1937 - November 14, 2025

Winnifred "Wimp" Rose Horn, age 88, of Green Pond, Alabama, peacefully passed away on Friday, November 14, 2025. Known simply as "Mama" or "Grandmother" to those closest to her, she dedicated her life to loving, nurturing, and caring for her family. She was full of stories from when she was a young girl growing up in West Blocton. Winnifred liked to crochet and adored feeding and watching the hummingbirds around her home. In her latter years she enjoyed spending holidays with her family, doting on her miniature poodle "Shug", and watching cars go by while sitting on her front porch sharing stories of her youth with those she loved the most. Winnifred is preceded in death by her parents, Clyde and Clara McCool; brother Bill McCool, sister Joann Roland, brother Cecil McCool; husband James Clay Horn and son Christopher Clay Horn. She is survived by her two sons, James Alvin Horn (Donna) and Byron Keith Horn (Teresa); five grandchildren, Jay Horn (Christy), Jamie Mitchell (Chris), Kelly Davis (Jeremy), Brandon Horn, Ashley Horn; and a host of great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held on Tuesday, November 18, 2025 at 1:30 p.m. at the Green Pond Presbyterian Church Cemetery. Brother Carl Hall will officiate the service. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to:
